Stand and Deliver.

The other day while reflecting upon the increasing frequency of our overdrafts, it occurred to us that may be we had been overlooking opportunities to raise our pecuniary standing. Having in mind Russell Conwell's lecture, "Acres of Diamonds," we began to cast about in our backyards for fields of wealth hitherto unobserved.

The first thing we espied was the carnival. We noticed one tent that always seemed crowded and investigation showed that it housed a scantily clad Hootchy Kootchy dancer. We saw many familiar faces in the procession going in and out and we got a big idea. We stationed ourselves at a convenient post for four nights and in that time we secured the names of 423 respectable married men of Pendleton, all of whom had, under cover of darkness, looked upon the oriental wiggler.

We intend to commercialize our knowledge. Boldly, our proposition is this: We are going to publish those names next week if the owners in the interim do not kick through with the kale seed. We won't fix any definite P. F. P. P. (translated this means "price for protection from publicity") but we have Dun and Bradstreet's rating of the men on the list and intend to get all the black mail we can. We realize that this is pure black mail but a study of high finance has convinced us that black mail is one of the most honorable ways of accumulating a big bank account, for it wears no mask of respectability. Next to a good black mailer we would rather be a successful train robber. Therefore, without any apology, we say, "Step right up, gentlemen! We need the class."

P. S.—After writing the above and setting it in type, we made the mistake of showing it to one of the men on the list in advance of publication. In half an hour he had sounded a general alarm. We only had 423 names on our list but we guess we missed a bunch because, in three hours, we had received calls from over 500. They had adopted the slogan, "We married men must stand together" and, after half a dozen of them had declared their readiness to swear to seeing us gazing upon the afore-mentioned dancer, we were convinced that the slogan was a good one. Therefore, we reluctantly decided to renounce our big idea and go prospecting in other back lots.

Let Fruit Do It.
Fruit thought of the good roads bonds. And the awful death they died.
"Full many a noble thing," quoth he,
"Has oft been crucified."
"Truth crushed to earth will rise again."
"What imports this election?"
"For I foresee for these road bonds
"A day of resurrection."

This Might Have Been Written 20 Years Ago.
The republican county central committee met Saturday and reorganized with Frank Carl as chairman, Marion Jack was elected state committeeman and Tom Thompson congressional committeeman. We are glad to see these deserving young men rise to leadership in their party.

Concerning Our Queenship.
The Albany Democrat says, "Pendleton spent over $7000 to name the queen of the Rose Festival. It's a good thing that Albany dropped out." We overlook the exaggeration, knowing as we do that $700, $7000 and 7,000,000, when it comes to raising either, all look and sound alike to a valley town.

He Didn't Think Old Liz Could Do It.
Byron Gumm was arrested while driving up the street in Bishop brothers' Maxwell runabout, vintage of 1902. He was fined $10 for speeding and he said the compliment to the car was worth twice that amount.

Once He Was a Man.
Says Col. Boyd in the Athena Press: "I can remember when Horace Stillman was a pretty good sort of a fellow, back in the '90s. But now he's in politics!"

If We Must Have Harmony.
When the proper time comes, Old Man Oregon may go Withycombe one better by looking around for a governor to harmonize with his secretary of state.—Weston Leader.

Come Where the Eagles Bloom.
Corvallis cannot understand how

Resinol Soap

a friend to tender skins

Many ill-made toilet soaps contain free alkali, a harsh chemical which tends to dry and injure the skin or hair. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and it is added the soothing, healing Resinol medication, which doctors have used for over 20 years in treating skin troubles. Thus it comforts tender skins, and helps nature clear the complexion and keep the hair rich, lustrous and free from dandruff. Sold at all druggists and toilet counters.

Pendleton raised over $1200 to elect Miss Muriel Saling queen of the Portland Rose Festival and has raised the hue and cry of "fraud." We suggest some of the moonbacks down there travel around a bit and see where the "real money" in Oregon is located.—Stanfield Standard.

It Might Have a Thorn in It.
Writing to the Bulldogger from Portland a former Pendletonian says relative to the quest for a king of the Rose Festival: "Personally, I think no one would wear the title of King Joy and portray the role better than your own Freddie Lampkin. Architecturally, temperamentally, the typical Old King Cole! Fair, fat and not quite forty! Possessed of an infectious joviality; his very face a cure for the blues; unhampered by wife or child; think it over and hand him the crown." Fred says nothing doing on a crown but he would consider a halo.

It's Over the Wording.
Many Pendleton anglers went down to the dam to fish yesterday and came back to damn the fish.

Best Thing for a Bilious Attack.
"On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and to next day I felt like a new man." writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. Bureau to Dole Meat Out.
BERLIN, May 29.—The exportation of all supplies of meat in Germany is fore-shadowed by the issuance of an ordinance placing all meat supplies on hand on May 25 at the disposal of the Imperial meat bureau, which has just been created. This bureau will authorize the sale or further disposal of meat at "reasonable prices."

Whooping Cough.
"When my daughter had whooping cough she coughed so hard at one time that she had hemorrhage of the lungs. I was terribly alarmed about her condition. Seeing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended, I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once. Before she had finished two bottles of this remedy she was entirely well," writes Mrs. S. P. Grimes, Crooksville, Ohio. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

PEACE IS SEEN TO BE IMPOSSIBLE THIS YEAR

BOTH SIDES IN STRUGGLE ARE TOO CONFIDENT OF FINAL VICTORY.

(BY CARL ACKERMAN.)
BERLIN, May 29.—President Wilson should not attempt to intervene in the war now, it was declared here today. The neutral ambassadors told the United Press that peace this summer will be impossible. The recent exchanges between belligerent capitals indicate that both sides are too confident of winning to listen to peace proposals now. One envoy believed that fighting might cease in October, basing his opinion upon the conviction that the summer's fighting would indicate an unbreakable deadlock on all fronts. Peace suggestions could then be carried through the winter, taking a year for consummation. The ambassadors believe that any other neutral ruler than Wilson has a better chance to conclude peace. Wilson's stand on the allied blockade will answer the question whether he is satisfactory to Germany as a peacemaker.

The destruction of birds costs this country $1,000,000,000 a year, it is estimated.

Why?

Because, as nearly as mind and hands can do it, we make each OWL just like every other OWL in blend and burning qualities.

"If you like one OWL, you'll like them all." We can say that with certainty because the flavor and even-burning of the OWL are insured by a million dollars' worth of selected, carefully melowed leaf.

WEALTHY FAMILIES INVOLVED IN TRAGEDY

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., May 29.—A triple tragedy involving two of the wealthiest families of the city occurred. Louis Werstein, son of a wealthy wholesale liquor dealer, shot and fatally wounded Will H. Skinner, son of B. T. Skinner, a director of the Advance Humely Thresher company. Werstein then went home and shot his wife Margaret Duffy Werstein, as she lay in bed, and then shot himself. Both the Wersteins are dead. Skinner will not recover.

Werstein had lain in wait for Skinner and shot him just after he arrived from Chicago.
Skinner and Mrs. Werstein had been seen much in each other's company recently. Mrs. Werstein was an accomplished pianist, a pupil of Leschelsky. Skinner was also an amateur musician.

WOMAN SO WEAK COULD NOT SLEEP

Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

North Oxford, Mass.—"I had lost three children and I was all run down and so weak I could not sleep at night. My eyesight would leave me and everything I ate upset my stomach. I was very nervous and if I would start to sleep I would have to stop and lie down before I could finish. I was looking over the paper one day and read of a woman who felt as I did and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I took it too. Now I am proud to tell you I am feeling fine and have given birth to a boy baby. He is my 'Pinkham' baby. I keep a bottle of Compound in my house always."—Mrs. PETER MARCO, Box 54, North Oxford, Mass.

Sleeplessness, indigestion, weakness, and nervousness are symptoms which indicate a lowered vitality of the female organism, and the tonic, strengthening properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs, contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, are just what is needed by every woman who is in Mrs. Marco's condition.
For free advice in regard to any annoying symptom write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.
